In addition to original and final versions of documents, all drafts, alterations, modifications, changes and amendments of documents should be produced, as well as copies that are not identical to the original in any respect, including any copy bearing non-identical markings or notations of any kind.

4. Every document produced pursuant to this request is to be produced in its entirety, including all attachments and documents affixed thereto.

5. Pursuant to F.R.B.P. 7026, F.R.C.P. 26(b)(5) regarding privileged materials applies to this request for production.

7. If a portion of an otherwise responsive document contains information subject to a claim of privilege, those portions of the document subject to the claim of privilege shall be redacted from the document and the rest of the document shall be produced.

8. For any document that you are aware existed at one time, but no longer exists, or that was once, but is no longer, within your possession, custody or control, describe fully each document, the circumstances under which the document ceased to exist or left your possession, and identify the document request(s) to which that document was responsive.

9. Information shall not be withheld merely because such information is stored electronically (e.g., word processing files, electronic mail, databases, accounting information, and spread sheets).
